Why Therapeutic Oils and Bath Salts?

Maintaining optimum health is complicated by genetics, environment, nutrition, and emotional and physical habits which compromise and influence health.

In an effort to provide healthy and manageable alternatives that meet the desires of our patients, FEM Centre recognizes the scientific research validating the powerful healing properties of therapeutic grade oils.

Clinical research confirms the ability of therapeutic oils to help heal, revitalize, regenerate, oxygenate and protect cells, tissue, and organs, while also optimizing a person's health.

FEM Centre's exclusive Detoxifying Therapeutic Bath Salts have been formulated to open pores, cleanse and purify the skin, reduce toxicity, and revitalize the body.
